Dedication

Some day in the future we may dust off the '57 Alleghanian and at the same time dust off our memories and pause in our unending quest of fortune to look back in retrospect of our high school years. Many nostalgic memories may enter our minds. Among these may be familiar scenes, exciting school events, old friends and teachers. More so to some, who were closely associated with him than to others who had only a cursory association with him, will be the fond memory of our marching band director, Mr. Del Monte.

"Music hath charms" and it was instilled in us by the friendly, kindly, and always ready and willing Mr. Del Monte. Our pep rallies, our band at games, our Alma Mater, will always be pleasant memories.

The staff is pleased to dedicate the '57 Alleghanian to one who has given us many pleasant moments and many fine memories.

F. L. Del Monte

West Allegeny Alma Mater

Alma Mater, West Allegheny
Scarlet and gray are true,
To thee we raise our loyal voices,
To echo our lifetime thru.
Thy guiding hand and spirit
Has kept our love for thee,--
The hours and days that were spent here
Will linger thru the years.

by Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Del Monte

Class of 1957

The Class of '57 first joined together at the junior high in 1951 as the seventh grade. It then consisted of 175 members. Since that time, the class has shown its initiative, ambition, and willingness to work and to cooperate with others in every activity that it undertook. When they graduated from ninth grade, only 164 members remained to enter senior high school.

Upon entering their Sophomore year, they elected George Mayoras as their president, and immediately began plans for the annual Soph Hop, the theme of which was "Winter Wonderland." Another activity, which the class introduced as Sophomores, was the Bon Fire Pep Rally held the night before a football game, to try to promote school spirit. It was the first of its kind in West Allegheny.

The class got off to a good start again in their Junior year. After re-electing George as president, plans were made for a successful Sadie Hawkins Dance. Next they managed the one and only Tonidale Day at the Tonidale Gas Station. Their class play, "Meet Corliss Archer," turned out to be a booming success. Next on the agenda was the prom, called "Stairway to the Stars." The professional entertainment hired for the post-prom party made it the most original ever to be held in the high school.

When the class became Seniors, all the qualities they possessed in seventh grade were still in full force. They began their Senior year by electing Jan Cummings as president, and by the more than just successful operation of the concession stand at the football games. They not only sold hot dogs and pop, but they tried selling Bar-B-Q's, and it worked out very well. The annual magazine sale also went rather well. Their Senior Class Play, "Off the Track," was a bit different than any other play presented at West Allegheny. As Seniors, the students converted the Washington-New York trip back to just a Washington trip. Sixty-eight members of the class took the long-awaited journey to the nation's Capitol. Baccalaureate services were held on May 19 with several local ministers as guest speakers. As a final gesture, the Class of '57 held their commencement exercises on May 22.

Activities

Future Homemakers of America

The Future Homemakers of America is one of the active organizations around the school. The officers of the F. H. A. were Darlene Conn, a senior, President; Virginia Garcia, also a senior, Vice-President; Nancy Orel, senior, and Theresa Tokarski, a junior, Secretary and Treasurer.

One of the highlight activities was the annual Halloween Dance held on October 29 for the F. H. A. and F. F. A. members. Another highlight of the year was the annual trip to the farm show to put on a skit. Six girls attended with the sponsor, Miss Rogers. The F. H. A. also sponsored several bake sales and cake and ice cream sales. A spring fashion show was also held by the members.

Varsity Cheerleaders

The Varsity Cheerleaders of 1956-57 have done an excellent job of keeping up school spirit and spunk at both the football and basketball games. Some of the pep assemblies the girls put on were really original!

Carol Stringert, Joan Purdy, and Toni Pettibon were the seniors on the squad, and have been varsity cheerleaders for two years, as well as Junior Varsities in their sophomore year.

This year's squad was chosen by the student council members, and was well coached by Miss Richey, the physical education teacher.

The names of the girls are: J. Purdy, C. Stringert, L. Long, D. Scarfone, P. Bogatay, and T. Pettibon.

J. V. Cheerleaders

The Junior Varsity Cheerleaders of 1956-57 have also done an excellent job of supporting both the Junior Varsity Basketball Team and the Wrestling Squad.

There was an unusually large number of girls trying out for the position; therefore, a new method of selection was worked out, and it seemed to bring good results.

If these girls wish to be Varsity Cheerleaders, they must try out again. Miss Richey also coached the J. V. squad.

The girls are: M. Venturini, D. Avery, M. Stewart, B. McConnell, S. Stringert, and B. Harvey.

Student Council

In the beginning of each year the student nominates candidates for president. Each nominee chooses a campaign manager and two of them conduct a campaign. The student body votes for president in assembly. The runner-up is the vice-president. The other two officers are chosen by the student council. Seated: J. Schoen, treasurer; A. Puhlman, president; P. Bogatay, secretary, and J. Hennon, vice-president.

Chorus

The senior high chorus is a mixed ensemble consisting of 101 voices. Similar choruses have been in existence for the last eight years in W. A. under the direction of Mr. Stewart Morgan.

The repertoire of the chorus consists of religious music with some popular semi-classical and spiritual numbers.

Miss Judy Manzini, student pianist, accompanies the chorus, even though a good deal of the music sung is a cappella.

Also under the active, but capable hands of Ray DeFade, the student director, the chorus has performed very well.

A Board of Directors, selected by the chorus, formulates the rules, plans performances, and keeps discipline in the chorus.

Public appearances of the chorus through this year were numerous. They performed at the annual Christmas Concert. Contrary to former years, the chorus sang "The Holy Birth", a beautiful Christmas Cantata, featuring for the first time five soloists. They also sang at the Spring Concert, and Westminster. Also W. A. appeared along with two other schools to sing at a combined band and chorus festival at Moon, which tends to be an annual event.

Since the jointure of the three school districts, Mr. Stewart Morgan has been in charge of all the choral music in the junior and senior high schools.

Mr. Morgan graduated from Westminster College with a Bachelor of Music Education Degree and received his degree of Master of Fine Arts from Carnegie Tech.

He started teaching in 1942 at Findlay High School.

In the past eight years, consistently, the chorus has been an outstanding organization in the school and is recognized state wide for its superiority.

The Quintones, a vocal group made up of students, was quite active in school and outside activities. L. to R.: Ken Dodds, Jim Marstellar, Al Puhlman, Bob Provost, Ray DeFade.

"Act Your Age"

"Act Your Age", a comedy of three acts, was presented this year by the Junior Class. It was the story of two teen-age girls and their encounters with two sailors, two lady wrestlers and one school teacher.

The two sailors were portrayed by Ron McElhaney and Ray Langer. Patti McKee and Phyllis Schollaert depicted the two teen-age girls. Mary Zimmerman and her side kick, Mary Louise White, were the wrestlers. Marie Venturini portrayed the school teacher. Chuck Burin was the ship commander and Dot Dziak was the Western Union girl.

The director of the play was Miss Stewart and her assistant was Janet Noah.

Miss Stewart checks script with Janet Noah and Dorothy Dziak.

"Take it easy, we're only supposed to be acting."

"These skirts ought to do something for you."

"They do make pleasant corpses, don't they?"

And they lived happily ever after.

"Off The Track"

The Senior Class Play entitled "Off the Track" was a three-act comedy directed by Miss Mary Conley.

The setting was in a small wayside railroad station on a dark, stormy night. It was the story of what can happen when a number of strange people are assembled because a fast moving train, No. 5, is derailed.

Frances Shagas acted the part of an aristocrat; Rosalie Haines portrayed the nebby old maid; Colleen Murdaca impersonated a good-natured Italian woman; Jack Logan played a deaf man with a mysterious looking suitcase. Al Puhlman was the young student lawyer and the three cheerful college girls were Carole Phillips, Judy Manzini and Barbara Mitchell. Dan Allinder and Murphy Hallum kept the audience entertained with their witty comedy.

Football

The 1956 Gridiron squad was once again under the direction of head coach, Ed Grega, who piloted the West Allegheny football squad to a 3 win and 6 loss record. Included in the victories were wins over Crafton, Stowe, and Burgettstown, marking the first time in the history of W. A. that the Indian team has surpassed Stowe and Crafton, and only the second time it has been victorious over Burgettstown. Of the six setbacks handed to the W. A. squad, 4 were lost by the margin of 1 touchdown.

The individual scoring was led by Murphy Hallum, (Mr. T. D.) with six touchdowns for a total of 36 points and followed closely by Bob Anderson with five touchdowns or 30 points.

The longest run of the season was by Murphy Hallum who galloped 80 yards against Hopewell.

Ted Zierden supplied extra points by converting 2 out of 6 tries.

The Indian squad as a whole scored 15 touchdowns and 2 extra points for a total of 92 points, while their opponents scored 18 touchdowns and 9 extra points for a final total of 117 points.
